PERSONAL INFORMATION

Have you ever been found responsible for a disciplinary violation at any educational institution you have attended from the 9th grade (or the international equivalent) forward, whether related to academic misconduct or behavioral misconduct, that resulted in a disciplinary action? These actions could include, but are not limited to: probation, suspension, removal, dismissal, or expulsion from the institution.

Yes* No

*If yes, please attach a written supplement, giving approximate date(s) and circumstances of each incident, and reflection on what you learned from the experience(s).

Have you ever been adjudicated guilty or convicted of a misdemeanor, felony, or other crime? Note that you are not required to answer "yes" to this question, or provide an explanation, if the criminal adjudication or conviction has been expunged, sealed, annulled, pardoned, destroyed, erased, impounded, or otherwise required by law or ordered by a court to be kept confidential.

Yes* No

*If yes, please attach written documentation detailing your criminal conviction or adjudication.

PLEASE READ AND SIGN BELOW

In consideration of the undertaking by the Office of Admission to process this information, the applicant agrees that the information furnished on the Application for Admission form, together with all information on materials of any kind received by the Office of Admission from any source, or prepared by anyone at its request, shall be, to the extent permitted by federal law, completely confidential and shall not be disclosed to anyone, including the candidate and family, except that the Chief Enrollment Officer may, for official purposes at his/her discretion, disclose any part or all thereof to such person or persons as he/she deems advisable.

Lasell University reserves the right to deny admission to any applicant who, in the University's judgment, does not qualify for admission. The University also reserves the right to require withdrawal of any student at any time of the year who does not satisfy the ideals of citizenship, character, or scholarship.

It is understood that students are enrolled for the entire school year or such portion as may remain after the date of entrance. The fact that the school fees are paid in two or more installments does not constitute a fractional contract.

In accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in its publications or any changes, and if accepted, in consideration thereof, I agree, so long as I am a student, to abide by the rules and regulations set forth in the publications and in the student handbook. I agree to accept and be bound by the provisions in those publications for the payment of all tuition fees, and charges for books and supplies, such obligation to survive my status as a student. I realize the publications and the student handbook may be changed by Lasell University.

It is also agreed that the University has permission to use in its publications or other promotions any University photograph in which this applicant may appear and his or her name.

I certify that all information submitted in the admission process – including the application, the personal essay, and any other supporting materials – is my own work, factually true, and honestly presented, and that these documents will become the property of Lasell University and will not be returned to me. I understand that I may be subject to a range of possible disciplinary actions, including admission revocation, expulsion, or revocation of course credit, grades, and degree, should the information I have certified be false.

I understand that, prior to enrolling at Lasell University, the following requirements must be met: satisfactory health clearance, satisfactory completion of all in-progress courses, receipt of final grades for this academic year comparable in quality to that upon which the offer was based, and verification of high school completion and honorable dismissal.
